Language development, managing feelings, making sense of the physical world

Big and his Teddy are getting ready for bedtime, but Teddy is scared of everything, being left alone in the dark and the strange noises he hears in the night. Big decides that to help Teddy sleep, they should all go on an imaginary journey to the Land of Nod from his favourite book. Once they arrive, the children create their own story using multi sensory materials and creative play. Can they help Teddy to overcome his fears?
