 Key Stage 1

Curriculum areas:

- Science - living things and their habitats
- English - extending vocabulary, presenting and debating
- SMSC - environment and conservation

A multisensory journey into the Amazonian rainforest to find a home for Acapella, a tree frog who has accidentally arrived in school in a delivery of fruit. The children travel to the Amazon with Jay the greengrocer, where they meet Huaorani, a member of an indigenous tribe who tells them about the threats to the rainforest. They discover the sounds, songs and stories of the Amazon before finally deciding where Acapella really belongs.
